

Presenter:

Tania Tytherleigh
The WorkPlace Coach

Secret Trainers' Business

“Scared Speechless? SPEAK!”

So you're a subject matter expert – but your delivery has your audience bolting for the nearest exit at the mere whiff of a coffee? Wish you could tap in to just a little of what Obama has that enables him to capture the imagination of billions around the world?

Learn the 5 no-brainer, fool-proof, work-every-time secrets to developing presence in front of an audience during this fun and interactive one day workshop. No secrets will be revealed here (you'll have to come to the workshop!) – but I can promise you that by the end of the day you will:

- Understand the power of stories, structure and sexy titles,
- Define your purpose, know what to include in your preparation and practice,
- Discover the secrets of engaging your audience multidimensionally,
- Create a winning attitude and develop the confidence to present professionally
- Ensure you know enough about your topic so that you can handle the curly questions, and assure your audience that you are THE expert in your field AND
- Have the confidence to stand up in front of an audience anywhere, any time (and even enjoy the experience)!

The Presenter: Tania Tytherleigh

Tania is a Master Corporate Trainer and Communication Specialist who has been working with key Australian government and private organisations to deliver transformational learning. Her passion is working with presenters and learning facilitators who are driven to deliver memorable learning experiences for their audiences. Tania has recently developed the revolutionary Training Excellence System™, a professional development program for learning facilitators.

Who should attend this workshop?

- Anyone who presents regularly as part of their role and wants to learn the secrets of effective public speaking!

Workshop Duration:

One Day